

HISHAMMUDDIN DREAMS OF A UNITED MALAYSIA

(Bernama) - MELBOURNE: Datuk Seri Hishammuddin Tun Hussein said he has the same dream his grandfather Datuk Onn Jaffar had about 50 years ago - a united Malaysia.

Speaking at a well-attended seminar here titled "Racial integration and its challenges" organised by Melbourne Umno Club yesterday, the Minister of Home Affairs said the topic was close to the heart of all Malaysians.

"It is one that is very close to me personally being the grandson of Datuk Onn (Jaffar) who wanted to open Umno to all races and as the son of Tun Hussein "Bapa Perpaduan," Hishammuddin said.

He said the 1Malaysia concept introduced and promoted by Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Razak was a revival of Onn's dream of a united Malaysia -- many races but one Malaysia.

"I continue to dream of a united Malaysia and I continue to hold on to that dream," said Hishammuddin to an applause from more than 200 Malaysian students.

But he admitted integration in Malaysia was becoming much more difficult and full of challenges.

"For example, even education and schools can easily become the place in which we can be most emotional," Hishammuddin said.

"On the issue of language between multilingualism and mother tongue, the preservation of indigenous and ethnic languages, and the position of Bahasa Malaysia could easily turn ugly for the whole world to see.

"The decision to teach Science and Maths in English can easily raise heated cultural and ethnic linguistic defence," he said.

Hishammuddin said, though the odds for racial integration in Malaysia "are against us, though it may still be a dream that has yet to materialise, we must continue to hold on to that dream, work hard at it with sincerity, honesty and integrity".

Are you DREAMING when you drag out the curly dagger, and swear on what you said??

I mean, you are Threatening the Malaysian non-malay. and u want a united Malaysia??

Sound more like enslaving Malaysia to me.....

Unite by heart, Enslave by Force. So, walk your(Hishammuddin) talk.... Thats the DREAM OF THE NATION~!

Hisham,we too share the same dream ! This reality can be achieved and theres no doubt about it. Contrary to what you think,its not difficult so long as the current goons in UMNO discard their out of date mentality. Walk the talk and show the sincerity with affirmative actions. We had heard enough !

I had a dream yesterday night that we are now a truly united democratic country with ISA , Sedition Act,etc all "mansuhed". DSAI is the prime minister with other ministers like Zaid,Tok Guru & LKS assisting him to lead this beautiful country of ours. Najis, Kerismudin, MahaShit & a host of BeEnd politicians were given an open free trial and jailed umpteen years for corruption to the glee of all Malaysians! Malaysia is now a truly united free democratic country!!!

In school I read about Datuk Onn Jaffar and admired him. Even then he had a vision - that some so-called leaders in Malaysia today cannot even comprehend. I also admired Tun Hussein Onn - but felt sorry for him when he was surrounded by racists. Hishamuddin? Disgusting to say the least!

You are nothing like your father. He supported Semangat 46 before he died, so did Tunku. He could see the poison of Mahathir and the dirty depths politics and politicians had sunk to. You are a kris-waving buffoon.

Kerismuddin, the way to unite - your style - is to take the keris and soak it with Chinese blood until there are no more Chinese in this country. Then do that with the Indians, the natives of Sarawak, Sabah and peninsular Malaysia. The you soak your keris with the blood of the Malays who belong to PAS. When that is done, you unite the remaining Malays. There is no other way when someone who says that he wants to defend the rights of the Malaysians is called traitor to the Malay race. So it is a fearful thought that I harbour - 1Malaysia means a Malaysia with only UMNOputras!

Your grandfather was a true MALAYSIAN because he supported the idea of all races being included in amno. Weren't you told that when amno disallowed non Malays to join it, your dear grandfather quit amno in disgust? How can you say you want to emulate your grandfather when you are one of amno's warriors wielding your kris that your boss promised to bathe it in Chinese blood? Same ideology as your grandfather? PIGIDAH!

One of the students asked me if this guy is for real? As they say in Malay, "cakap tak serupa bikin".

As the son of Tun Hussein Onn, he is the antithesis of his father. On 1st August 2009, Malaysians from all walks of life went to our nation's capital to cash a check. When the architects of our democratic nation wrote the magnificent words of the Constitution and the Declaration of Independence, they were signing a promissory note to which every Malaysian was to fall heir. This note was a promise that all men - yes, black men, yellow men, brown men as well as white men - would be guaranteed the unalienable rights of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. It is obvious today that Malaysia has defaulted on this promissory note, insofar as her citizens of color are concerned. Instead of honoring this sacred obligation, Malaysia has given the people a bad check, a check which has come back marked "insufficient funds."

So what the father and his peers had achieved, the son is now destroying. No, I told the student its not real; its like what you let go every morning in the toilet after having a nice dinner the night before.

Your grandfather had a great dream, until it was hijacked by the racists in UMNO.

That was the reason why he settled for IMP.
In all practical purposes and ideals, PKR today is a good reflection of IMP. ie. a party which is opened to all races.

So if you want to fulfill the role of a filial grandson, resign from UMNO and join PKR.

I hope the Chinese, the Indians and the open minded Malays unite. We unite when it came to petrol price, we unite when it came to Mar8, we unite when it came to TBH, we unite when it came to Kugan, we unite when it came to Altantuya, we unite when it came to Perak.....so our believes are not too far apart. All of us are GOD fearing ppl except for some of the hypocrites that live amongst the politician.....It WILL definitely be too late if they kill RPK, wrestle Selangor (just like Perak), they kill another politician,
